Staying safe in your community

You may have seen some scary things happening across the country recently.

Some people are breaking the law and saying racist and unkind things about others.

This is very upsetting for everyone.

This started because of a very sad event in Southport, where children were hurt and killed.

People spread lies online that the person who did this was a refugee. This means they thought the person was new to the country. Sometimes people say things on social media that may not be true.

If you are not sure about what you read or share you can speak to someone you trust.

Though the information was wrong, some people are meeting in large groups across the country. They are talking about things like immigration and saying they don't trust the government.

You may have seen people some people are committing crimes like breaking and burning things, being racist and attacking the police. This is against the law and is very upsetting to see and is not OK.

The Prime Minister is working with the police to stop the bad behaviour.

The police are working to arrest people who are breaking the law and some people have already been arrested.

Remember, most people want to live in peace and be kind to each other. The police and the government are working hard to keep everyone safe.
If you feel scared or worried, talk to someone you trust. It is very important to share how you feel.

Remember, there are many people who want to help and support you.
